Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig, Widely Known Demonstrator Will Conduct Cooking School at American Legion Hall for Four Days, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday.

LARGE NUMBER PREDICTED FOR SUMMER COURSE

FACULTY CHANGES FOR QUARTER ARE ANNOUNCED.

Registration Will Start Tomorrow Morning—Training School Fees Are Cut.

Tomorrow will mark the opening of the Twenty-second summer session at the College. Indications are that there will be a very large summer school, for apartments and light housekeeping rooms are practically all filled and the dormitories have a much larger number of reservations than at this time last year.

Registration will begin at eight o'clock, and heads of departments will be busy advising their majors throughout Monday and Tuesday. Dean R. P. Jarrett and Registrar D. A. Shirley have been busy all through the commencement season helping prospective students arrange their programs, and the housing committee, headed by Dr. Harris M. Cook has been endeavoring to find suitable locations for all who are seeking living quarters for the summer.

Although it is yet too soon to know definitely, President J. A. Hill states that there is every indication that the summer school will have a large attendance, and that there will be the same seriousness of purpose evinced in the work that has been characteristic of the regular long session which has just closed.

Several new faces will be seen in the faculty for the summer. Superintendent W. A. McIntosh will teach in the department of education. Miss Helen White Moore who has been in the high school department will teach in the College English department during the summer. Everett Key, a graduate of the local college, and now head of the manual training department of the Lubbock high school will substitute for J. A. Gillis who is on leave for the summer.

Miss Fern Bowman, of Syracuse University, will teach in the home economics department of which Miss Elizabeth Cox will be acting head during the absence of Miss Marion Normington who will study in Chicago for three months. Miss Bowman is also a graduate of this College.

Miss Effie Rogers of Norfolk, Virginia, and Mr. Ferdinand F. Black will be new members of the Art and Geography departments. Miss Rogers will work with Miss Miltia Hill in the absence of Miss Robinson, and Mr. Black will take the work of Miss Bessie Engle.

City Federation Is Enthusiastic Over Contest

Mrs. J. Madison Daugherty, president of the City Federation of Women's Clubs, is enthusiastic in her support of the Canyon News' First Annual Cooking School and especially the Great West Mill and Elevator Company's Pie and Cake Baking Contest which is to be one of the leading features of the School.

"I think we are fortunate in securing Mrs. Ihrig for Canyon," said Mrs. Daugherty. "I surely want to urge every good cook in Randall County to enter this contest.

"Our men and 4-H club boys have done wonderful work for Randall County. Now let we women show Mrs. Ihrig the finest array of cakes and pies she has been called upon to judge in her many schools.

"This is truly a community event for women and I'm sure this school will break all attendance records."

A. L. Biggs is Candidate Office of County Judge

A. L. Biggs has authorized the News to announce his candidacy for the office of County Judge of Randall County.

In making this announcement to the voters of Randall County, it is, no doubt, proper that they should know more of who I am and some of my qualifications to take care of the office of County Judge.

I am a native Texan, born in Collin County in 1894. I came to the Panhandle some 32 years ago and have resided in Deaf Smith and Randall Counties practically ever since. Am a married man and have two children.

Served in the U. S. Navy during the World War, returning to Deaf Smith County, where I went into the County and District Clerk's office as deputy, and later was elected to that office.

If elected, I promise to render to the people of Randall County, as well as anyone else who may have business in said office, an efficient, courteous and business-like administration, and upon this basis I earnestly solicit your vote and support.

A. L. BIGGS.

Hereford, Texas, May 16, 1932.
TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

It gives me pleasure in stating that I have known Mr. A. L. Biggs since his boyhood; have been well acqutinted with him, also his family. I know him to be a young man of unimpeachable integrity; sober, industrious and efficient in his line of work, which is principally clerical.

He was County and District Clerk for Deaf Smith County for a number of years. Was one of the best clerks this county has had; always on the job; kept his records and all office work up to date, and in a clean "ship shape" manner; and was and is courteous, and qualified in every way for the position.

I understand that Mr. Biggs is running for the office of County Judge of Randall County; and I wish to say that from his past experience, character and honesty, he is highly qualified for that position; and if he is elected, in my opinion, he will perform the duties of the office to the full satisfaction and expectations of his constituents.

(Signed): W. H. Russell,
Attorney, Hereford, Texas.

Suit on Gambling in Grains Will Be Filed on Monday

Judge L. Gough of Amarillo was in the city Friday conferring with W. H. Hicks and John Knight regarding the suit which is being prepared against the Chicago Board of Trade and other stock gamblers who are holding down the price of grain.

Judge Gough states that the suit will be filed Monday in the federal court in Amarillo. Injunction is being sought against the Board of Trade by the farmers, and it is expected that early trial will be had of the case should the injunction be granted. Mr. Gough believes that if the injunction is granted, the price of wheat will improve.

Judge Gough states that the farmers of Randall county greatly appreciate the publicity given by The News regarding the wheat situation, and the support that is given editorially to the movement to wipe out gambling on the farmer's produce.

Guests of Mrs. B. Brewer this week were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Williams of Dallas, and Mrs. O. S. Walsh and daughter, Elizabeth, of Memphis.

CONSTRUCTION BEGINS MONDAY ON HIGHWAY 33

C. N. HARRISON GETS CONTRACT TO FURNISH WATER.

Construction Is Under Way On Highway 9 to Happy; Randall Roads Greatly Improved.

Actual construction work on Highway 33, west, which is to be paved to the Deaf Smith County line, a distance of 15.5 miles, is to begin Monday, June 5, according to reports received this week.

The McClurg Construction Company of Fort Worth holds the contract for this road which is to be paved with a caliche base and a single bituminous surface. Ted Wyatt is superintendent in charge of the work.

C. N. Harrison, local contractor, received a contract to furnish the McClurg company with 5 million gallons of water for the job and has drilled a well for this purpose near Umbarger. Local labor is to be used in the highway work as far as possible, stated the company.

Construction started some weeks ago on Highway 9 south to Happy. This road is to be paved with the same materials as the one west and the contract is in the hands of another Fort Worth firm, that of Ernest Lloyd. Work is progressing rapidly on this project so far, and local labor is being employed to a great extent.

These two road projects will involve the expenditure of thousands of dollars weekly in the county and will employ in the aggregate some $200,000 in money.

Dr. Fronabarger Returns to W. T. Head English Dept.

Dr. B. F. Fronabarger, Jr., will become head of the English Department of the West Texas State Teachers College at the opening of the fall term, succeeding Dr. F. M. Darnall, who goes to Denton. Dr. Fronabarger and Dr. Darnall will exchange positions in the teachers colleges, according to agreement reached recently by Presidents J. A. Hill and R. L. Marquis.

Dr. Fronabarger decides to return to Canyon to be with his father and mother, Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Fronabarger. He has been head of the English department at Denton for several years. He taught in Simmons University for one year and was a member of W. T. faculty for two years. He received his Ph. D. degree from Harvard.

Dr. Darnall has been head of the department for the past year, and has had splendid success with his work here. He came from the Texas Woman's College at Fort Worth, where he was head of the English Department.

On account of a recent ruling of the Board of Regents for Teachers Colleges, forbidding two members of a family to hold positions with any of the seven colleges, Miss Elva Fronabarger will resign from the training school faculty and work on her Masters Degree during the coming year.

Canyon Golf Team Will Not Play at Clovis on Sunday

The scheduled game of golf between Clovis and Canyon for Sunday was postponed on account of the fact that a number of Canyon players could not participate. The game will be played next Sunday.

Jimmie Gamewell, ace of the Canyon team, is in Dalhart to play in the Invitation Tournament, which he won last year.

ELY PROPOSES TO CLOSE THE HIGHWAY GAPS

SWISHER AND DEAF SMITH TO BENEFIT.

All Counties on Plains Not Connected Would Get Free Highway if Right-of-Way is Secured.

ABILENE, June 4.—Judge R. W. Ely, chairman of the State Highway Commission, states that the commission will close the gaps on the state highways of the Panhandle if the counties will secure the right-of-ways for these highways. The some type of construction would be used on these highways as is being used in Randall and other counties on the Plains.

Judge Ely will recommend that the state do this type of paving in Swisher, Deaf Smith, Parmer, Oldham and Armstrong counties if these counties will secure the right-of way for the highways. At the next meeting of the commission Judge Ely will seek to secure an order making possible this construction.

"The highway department is most anxious to connect the main highways of the Panhandle, and we do not intend to let up in the least until the job is finished. We are doing more work in the Amarillo

Frank Hicks Is Candidate Sheriff and Tax Collector

P. Frank Hicks, Chief of Police of Canyon is a candidate for the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector of Randall County. He has been a citizen of Randall county for thirty-three years. He has held his present office with the city for three years, and for five years has been a special deputy under Sheriff John Fry. He has worked on the principal law enforcement cases in the county during this time.

Mr. Hicks states that he is running for Sheriff upon his record as a peace officer, both in Canyon and Randall county, and asks the voters to investigate his record, both as a citizen and a peace officer. He realizes the importance of the Tax Collector's duties, and is thoroughly acquainted with not only these duties, but the records of the office. In offering for this office, he feels fully qualiied to fulfill every duty which would be imposed upon him, and asks that the voters give him due consideration.—Adv.

Clyde W. Warwick Out For Re-election As Representative

Clyde W. Warwick, representative of the 123rd district of the Texas Legislature, composed of Potter, Carson, Deaf Smith, Oldham, Armstrong and Randall Counties, has authorized the announcement of his candidacy for re-election to the office he now holds. Mr. Warwick's statement follows:

"I appreciate very much the honor that has been given me in being State Representative in the legislature the past four years, since I succeeded Hon. Lee Satterwhite of Potter County. In offering for re-election I do so with the feeling that the greatest crisis of many years now faces the State of Texas, and that men of experience are needed in the legislature. If the legislature of Texas has made serious mistakes in the past, it may be charged largely to the fact that too many new and inexperienced members are sent to the law-making body every two years. It is a well known fact that in legislative bodies, experience is very badly needed to improve the class of legislation, and secure for the state the best kind of laws. Right now the great need of Texas is not the passage of more laws, but the strengthening of existing laws which are good, and the repeal of laws which are ineffective.

Question of Economy

"At the present time one question is more serious with every citizen than any other—the question of economy. Every citizen is facing the problem in his own life. The state government is likewise facing the question of economy, and this question is of paramount importance in the selection of the members of the legislature. The cost of government must be reduced. I am pleased to report to the voters of this district that the last session of the legislature, the 42nd, made progress in the lines of economy, and at the present time committees are at work with the view of greatly reducing the

Baking Contest Promises To Be Very Interesting

One of the most interesting features of the Canyon News' First Annual Cooking School will be the county wide Cake and Pie Baking Contest which is to be staged by the Great West Mill and Elevator Company. Cooks from all parts of Randall County are urged to compete in this contest, rules of which are carried in the Great West Mill and Elevator Co.'s ad to be found in this issue of The News.

Any kind of cake or pie may be baked. The one provision is that Great West flour must be used. Cakes and pies must be brought to the Cooking School at the American Legion hall each day of the school between 2 and 4 o'clock or to the offices of the News at other hours. The contest closes at 11 a. m. Friday and no pies or cakes will be accepted after that time.

Entries will be judged by Mrs. Ihrig and two local judges and prizes will be awarded at the Friday session of the school.

This contest is sponsored by the City Federation of Women's Clubs. All cakes and pies entered become their property and will be sold to the public Friday afternoon. The entire proceeds of this sale will go to the funds of that organization.

Daily Prizes To Be Feature Of School

In addition to the many daily prizes offered by K. C. Baking Powder and Great West Milling Co., the women visiting the cooking school will receive many valuable prizes from local merchants.

Bellah's New Food Store will offer many valuable grocery prizes daily in addition to some other surprise gifts.

Buffalo Meat Market will spring a surprise or so as the school goes along.

Terry Beauty Salon will give away, daily, one dollar's worth of skilled beauty work of whatever kind the winner may choose.

McCarty Bros., Inc., will give, each day, one of their famous Nelly Don dresses.

Thompson Hardware Company who are furnishing Mrs. Ihrig's new model kitchen will have a surprise or so for its visitors.

Other merchants and firms will be added to the list from day to day.

Candidates Endorse Cooking School and to Appear Thursday

A number of District and County candidates have announced their support of the Cooking School and are co-operating with the Canyon News and the business firms of Canyon in making the School a great success.

Thursday will be Candidate Day at the School, and those who are co-operating in the School will be introduced to the hundreds of ladies who attend the school that afternoon.

Candidates who are co-operating are:

A. B. Martin, candidate for Associate Justice, Court of Civil Appeals.

Clint C. Small, candidate for Senator, 31st district.

A. L. Biggs, candidate for County Judge.

Misses Brummett and Goodrich Leave For Camp in New York

Misses Thelma Brummett and Lois Goodrich left yesterday for New York City where they are employed for the summer in a girls' camp. They were in this work last summer.

Miss Ruby Kendrick Cherry will be secretary to President J. A. Hill during the summer while Miss Brummett is away.

There is a great week ahead for the women of Canyon and Randall County. The topic of the town and county is the first annual cooking school of the Canyon News to be held Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at the American Legion Hall with sessions beginning promptly at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig, widely known demonstrator of the Southwest, will be in charge of the school. Mrs. Ihrig has conducted a number of schools over the Panhandle and is well acquainted with the problems that confront the housewives of the plains. She gives practical demonstrations and has an exceedingly pleasing stage presence. The News cannot overestimate the value of women making no engagement that will conflict with the cooking school.

The City Federation of Women's Clubs will sponsor the cake and pie baking contest in connection with Mrs. Ihrig and the Great West Mills. The cakes will be sold at the close of the contest and the money reverted to the treasury of the City Federation.

Daily attendance prizes will be given by the merchants of the city. These will be given at the close of the afternoon's program. In order to be in line for these prizes, those who attend must register each afternoon on their arrival before the opening of that afternoon's session at 2 o'clock.

As the school is expected to draw a large number of women downtown every afternoon, it is believed that the merchants of the city will benefit from the school because of the crowds.

Don't miss the session Tuesday!

Mrs. Ihrig Will Arrive Today to Prepare School

Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig, who will conduct the sessions of the Canyon News First Annual Cooking School, will arrive in Canyon late tonight.

She will spend Monday in becoming acquainted with the merchants of Canyon and the quality products handled in Canyon stores.

"I am more than glad of the opportunity of spending a week in Canyon," Mrs. Ihrig wrote today. "For several years I have passed through Canyon enroute to other Panhandle cities, and each time, I have found myself wishing that I might stop there. The prospect of a school in Canyon is indeed a pleasant one."

Although she abides by no set program, an outline of her lectures was sent to the News yesterday.

"I refuse to confine myself to any set program," Mrs. Ihrig declared. "My schools are built to fit the needs and the wishes of the community. They vary weekly, and no two can be said to be identical.

The tentative program as announced by Mrs. Ihrig is as follows:

Tuesday, "Why We Changed the Doormat." In this discussion Mrs. Ihrig will outline the changes which have taken place in cooking and in housekeeping during the past 20 years. Conservation of energy and labor on the part of the housewife is stressed. She also will prepare several new dishes for Canyon housewives.

On Wednesday, "What We Eat and Why," will bring to the women of Canyon new principles and theories of dietetics, and proper eating.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McDaniels made a business trip to Fort Worth last week.

The wets are demanding that platforms favorable to modification of the 18th amendment be written into the platforms of both the Republican and Democratic parties. It looks like the Democrats would make another mistake and play with the wets again as they played with them four years ago at Houston. The Republicans have been able to side-step the prohibition question in national conventions, and we would not be at all surprised to see them evade the question again this year in spite of the loud and long appeal from the wet element of the party. While the wets succeeded in getting charge of the Texas convention, we are not convinced that Texas is ready to ditch prohibition and go back to the old saloon days. Of course the wets say they do not mean this, but deep down in their hearts nearly every anti is hoping for the day when he can put his foot on the brass rail and blow off the foam. The voters have a job to perform this year to see that these days do not return.

Speaker John N. Garner charges the Hoover administration is a complete failure, and predicts that the election this fall will remove Hoover from the White House. All Democrats, and not a few Republicans will agree with Mr. Garner as to the Hoover administration. Hoover charges the Garner plan of helping the common folks as being a pork barrel proposition, and the Speaker retaliates that the President's program of helping the Banks and other lines of big business may be classed as pork barrel legislation. The gospel truth is that Herbert Hoover does not know or understand, and can never know or understand the needs of the common man. He has been associated only with the rich and powerful so long that their language is the only language that he understands.

The fact that the publisher of The News is a candidate for Representative will make no difference as to the editorial utterances of this newspaper during the present campaign. The News will support the candidate for office which it deems the best qualified, regardless of the political effect the support may have on the personal political fortunes of the publisher. We expect to "speak out in meeting" as to state and district candidates the same as this newspaper has always done during the past 22 years under the present management.

The News appreciates very much the splendid co-operation which has been shown in the past week in preparing for the Cooking School. We hope that every woman of the county will attend the Cooking School daily, and benefit from the splendid lectures which will be given by Mrs. Ihrig. Reports from every town in which Mrs. Ihrig has conducted these schools indicate that wonderful benefits have been reaped by the women who have attended.

Good morning. We hope that you will enjoy the first issue of a daily newspaper in Canyon. The News will be printed daily during this week for the benefit of the First Annual Cooking School sponsored by the Canyon News. Read the News daily, Sunday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Hon. Lee Satterwhite, candidate for The Railroad Commission, made a swing through the Panhandle this past week meeting old friends and making a few speeches. He opposes C. V. Terrell who has shown his unfittness for the office and who should be defeated. We believe that Satterwhite is the best qualified candidate for the office.

Wets say the return of booze will bring prosperity. Fine logic. With hungry people crying out for something to eat, the spending of megre salaries for booze to destroy manhood would certainly not bring back prosperity to this country.

Two years ago Jim Ferguson opposed Ross Sterling because he was reported to be a millionaire. Now Jim is opposed to Ross Sterling because Ross is broke. It's always easy to find a reason for opposition in this political game.

If the farmers ached half as much about the depression as most of us town folks, good times would never return. Most farmers are fighting away and making some kind of a living.

The country is crying out for congress to do something and come home. What is really meant is to reduce expenditures, beginning with congressional salaries.

Keep Building

The COUNTY The COLLEGE And CANYON

CHAMBER OF COMERCE

FRED E. WORTHAM, Secretary

The drive for funds to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society's museum is nearing a close. All money must be in the bank not later than July 1st.

Citizens of Canyon, it is action now or never. Perhaps you may think it a big undertaking now to complete the drive for the $25,000 in cash to meet the appropriation, but it must not fail.

If Canyon loses the museum it means never a museum. Plans will be quickly formulated and funds raised for such a building in some other city. The museum will mean a considerable lot more to this place in the years to come than the average person thinks.

At present the effort needed to put it across means a sacrifice on the part of almost everyone, but those who have gone before us, blazing the trails for us to follow, underwent sacrifices, the like of which the most of us will never experience. They staked their all, on the future of this country and the generations which are to follow.

If the appropriation now offered the citizens of this section is returned to the general fund of the state, because the money cannot be matched according to the terms of the appropriation and the contract awarded before August 31, it means no more state buildings in Canyon for a number of years to come.

On the other hand if the appropriation now offered is matched and the contract awarded not later than August 31, it means that the first museum building using any part of a state appropriation will be erected in Canyon.

When completed the museum will be the mecca for hundreds and hundreds of those interested in studing the visible history of the early pioneers of this great Plains country. It will mean that this place will have the only museum collection built around the records of the early pioneer cattlemen. It is a challenge to the people, but is it as great as was the one necessary to raise the $100,000 to secure the location of the College in Canyon over two decades ago?

The splendid co-operation and help this organization is receiving in connection with advance plans for the big minstrel on June 17 is very encouraging.

All proceeds from this will go into the museum fund. The admission price will feature the 1932 version of entertainment charges. It will be your opportunity to have an evening's entertainment, the like of which hasn't been seen in Canyon for many years.

Now is the time to begin making your plans to attend.

The Canyon News is to be congratulated upon the enterprising efforts put forth at this time in order to give to Canyon housewives the first real cooking school. Such an event as this, which is first class in every respect, has been a rare thing for smaller cities over the country.

Perhaps the only objection to be found to such a school is that the volume of sales on indigestion remedies will rise with astounding rapidity after close of the school. Housewives are naturally prone to do the thing that is just a bit different and with all the new arts of cooking which will be expounded by Mrs. Ihrig, experiments by the wholesale will be conducted in the near future.

Let's trust that they are successful experiments from every standpoint.

Our hats are off to you, Mrs. Ihrig, and the Canyon News!

It's getting harder and harder for a man to tell these days whether a knock at the door is Opportunity or just another house-to-house salesman.

Canyon Leads the State in Number Commencements

Canyon probably has more commencement programs than any other town of its size in Texas. Beginning nearly two weeks ago, citizens of Canyon have been able to attend some kind of a commencement program nearly every night.

The seventh grade of the Canyon public school had exercises marking its approach to high school, and the seventh grade of College Training school had a similar program. The Canyon high school and the Demonstration High School had baccalaureate sermons and commencement addresses marking the promotion of large classes into college or industrial life. And finally the college commencement ceremonies marked the passage of 134 young men and women from the college and usually from the life of the town.

All of these happenings have brought hundreds of visitors to Canyon during the last ten days.

Lee Satterwhite Spoke Thursday to Voters of County

Hon. Lee Satterwhite, former Representative of this district and Speaker of the House of Representatives, spoke Thursday morning at the court house in the interest of his campaign for a member of the State Railroad Commission to succeed C. V. Terrill, chairman. Mr. Satterwhite was introduced by Clyde W. Warwick, who succeeded him in the House from this district.

Mr. Satterwhite charged that state employes were touring the state at the present time while on the state pay roll, in state owned automobiles, using gas and oil bought by the state, and eating at the expense of the state for no other purpose than to re-elect C. V. Terrell.

The candidate told of his 14 years of service in the Texas legislature, representing three districts. He served as Speaker of the House during the 39th Legislature.

Terrell in for Six Years

"During the legislative hearing investigating the oil and gas business of this state, last summer, it was developed, according to my ideas, that Chairman C. V. Terrell was not living up to the standards needed in that high and important office," said Mr. Satterwhite. "Mr. Terrell is a candidate for re-election. He has served almost six years and at the close of this year will have been paid $48,000 for his efforts. The railroad commission members draw $6'000 a year and the state is entitled to $6,000 worth.

"I believe the railroad commission offers more opportunity to be of real service to the people of Texas than the governor's office. Originally formed to regulate and control the railroads of the state, the development of the oil and gas business and the truck and bus industry has more than trebled the original powers and responsibilities of the commission.

Control Oil and Gas

"The creation of the Interstate Commerce Commission relieved the state commission of much of the railroad work, so when oil and gas legislation became necessary, the enforcement of those rules and regulations was assigned to the commission.

"Subsequently, the truck and bus legislation and regulation was turned over to the commission. If the railroads and the bus and truck companies had been allowed to run things as they wished, one of them would have been eliminated. It was necessary that the state adopt rules and regulations and see that both services were maintained for the benefit of the people.

"I believe it is necessary that the weight and size of busses and trucks be regulated and that traffic laws be strict enough that operators will realize the danger of the traffic on the highways and protect the people and their interests.

Charges Extravagance

"I would not favor one against the other. Both should be maintained and saved for the service of the public.

"I charge Chairman C. V. Terrell with extravagance and procrastination in public office. Under his leadership the railroad commission failed to adopt rules and regulations covering the orderly development of the great East Texas oil field until the development had gotten entirely out of hand. The state lost fully $3,000,000 in revenue and landowners and operators received only a small part of what they should have received through this negligence and procrastination.

"The law provides that the railroad commission may regulate drilling by spacing the wells. Experience in other fields should have told the commission what would happen in East Texas.

Regulation Need Cited

"If the gas fields of the Panhandle had been properly developed under rules and regulations propounded by the railroad commission, the Panhandle of Texas would have received millions of dollars in additional money from the sale of its gas.

"What will happen if these gas transporting companies are not regulated? They can ruin a city by raising the rate. They can play one town against another. They can play havoc in general.

"The 42nd Legislature during the winter of 1930-31 appropriated $70,000 for the commission to use in evaluating properties of these gas transporting companies in order that they might have something to work on in figuring rates. This appropriation was originally $20,000 but the commission said that was not sufficient.

Quick Action Imperative

"Numerous towns had complained about their gas rates. It was imperative that action be taken at once. That $70,000 was available on September 1, 1931. On December 31, the commission signed a contract with Hawley, Freeze and Nicholls to evaluate the property of the Lone Star Gas Company on a bid of a maximum cost to the state of $45,500. They had one bid of $39,000.

"The contract specified that for their services in making the evaluation, Mr. Hawley should receive $100 a day and expenses, Mr. Freeze and Mr. Nicholls, $75 a day and expenses each. Other salaries were in line with stenographers getting $5 a day. Marvin Nicholls is widely known in Amarillo as he lived there for a number of years.

Had Man Applications

"Pat Neff, who recently resigned as a member of the commission, told me that he had applications from any number of engineers, out of work and needing jobs, willing to undertake that evaluation at $200 a month. But under the leadership of Chairman Terrell, the railroad commission signed a contract agreeing to pay one man at the rate of $100 a day and at least four others $75 a day.

"Be it sid to Pat Neff's glory that he refused to sign that contract.

"I call the signing of that contract extravagance in office. And there has also been a lot of procrastination in that work. The contract specified that the engineers should complete the work in 100 working days. About 10 days ago, they made the report and the commission, under the leadership of Chairman Terrell has set the date of the public hearing for July 11, and Mr. Terrell says that it will take three or four weeks to take the testimony.

Long Delay Seen

That means that the primary will be over before it is concluded and it appears certain that another winter, with its high gas bills, will have passed before the state has any data about this one company.

"The railroad commission made that contract for $75-a-day-men at the time when thousands of Texans were forced to let their homes go on the delinquent tax lists because they couldn't even borrow the money to pay taxes.

"The railroad commission uses 57 state-owned automobiles. It costs $400 a month just to wash and grease them. During the last session of the Legislature, they requested an emergency appropriation of $6,800 to buy eight new automobiles—$850 and a used car for each new car. The official they sent to Austin to ask for the appropriation told me that it wouldn't be right to ask the commission employees to ride around in light cars as they would be too tired when their day's work was over.

Appropriation Cut

"I opposed that appropriation and the next morning I got a telegram from the secretary of the Odessa Chamber of Commerce, my home town, urging me to support it. Why did I get that telegram from a town 386 miles from Austin in such a hurry? The appropriation was finally cut to $450 a car and the railroad commission employees are using at least eight light cars now.

"It seems that when some people get on the state's pay roll they forget there is a depression or hard times.

"We need men on this commission and in other state offices who have the ability and the backbone to say 'We will see how much we can save you' instead of 'Give us the money and we will spend it.'

"No man on state pay should be expected or allowed to use state automobiles and state funds to campaign or solicit funds for his chief. That is going on right now against me.

"I know I am bucking a well-oiled machine.

School Man Gets Job

"Jobs are even being passed out where they will do the most good in order to re-elect C. V. Terrell. The superintendent of schools at Richmond, Texas, was on the commission's payroll last summer as a truck inspector. He spent most of his time in Houston telling wry Chairman Terrell should be re-elected. How long will the people of Texas stand for that kind of business?

"Texas needs a man with executive ability to handle the railroad commission job and I cite you to my record as Speaker of the House as an organizer.

"I believe I can serve the people of Texas as a railroad commissioner. I feel my record justifies that belief. I earnestly ask your support."

CHEMICAL WARFARE

As the World War to an important exteht was, and the next war to a still greater degree is expected to be, the prohibition-enforcement war is a battle of the chemists.

Dr. James A. Doran, commissioner of the industrial alcohol section of the internal revenue department told a Philadelphia audience that the government chemists must constantly devise new denaturants to prevent alcohol sold for legitimate purposes from being used, through "recooking" and similar processes, in the manufacture of bootleg whiskey.

When the government scientists devise a new denaturant the chemists for the bootleggers produce a scheme to overcome it. It is a sort of a hooch leapfrog game. One wonders how the score stands now.

Proper Eating Is Stressed by Mrs. Leona R. Ihrig

The principles of diet and proper eating, which Mrs. Ihrig presents in her daily lectures, are endorsed by leading physicians and dieticians of the country.

In former years cooking school instructors were content to give new recipes and a few means of making housework easier. Mrs. Ihrig not only gives the manner of preparing food in new attractive and tasty combinations, but also outlines the necessity of including certain elements in the diet, the purpose to which these elements are put, and the foodstuffs which contain the elements.

Mrs. Ihrig is cook, bio-chemist, dietician, and instructor.

Combined with this wealth of knowledge is a pleasant personality which has won for her a host of friends in every city in which she has conducted schools. Her schools are not formal courses of instruction, but a friendly "get-together" in her own kitchen. The privilege of asking a question at any time is granted to every member of the audience.

Mrs. Ihrig has been conducting cooking schools throughout the Panhandle since March 21. From Dalhart to Midland, and from Hereford to Shamrock, the cooks of the Panhandle attest her ability as an instructor and as a cook.

Several Women Are Injured In Car Crash

Miss Maggie Avent suffered severe bruises about the body and her sisters, Mrs. Jewel Davis of Amarillo and Mrs. Tom Lair of Canyon, were badly bruised and shaken up when the car in which they were riding collided with a car driven by a Mr. Ridley on the Canyon-Amarillo highway about 7 o'clock Thursday evening. Other occupants of the car were Mrs. M. M. Karnegay of Dallas, another sister of Miss Avent, Doris Davis, a daughter of Mrs. Davis, and the two children of Mrs. Lair, James and Mary Margaret, all of whom sustained minor scratches and bruises but no serious injuries. Ridley was not injured.

Miss Avent was returning her sisters, Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Lair, to their homes after a day spent in visiting their father, G. W. Avent, who is quite ill at his home here. According to reports, they were driving at a moderate rate of speed behind a heavily laden truck. The truck stopped and just as Miss Avent prepared to pass, the car in front driven by Ridley turned to the left into the Hollywood Filling Station of which his father is manager. Both cars were badly damaged.

The injured were brought to Canyon and are convalescing at the home of their father.

Mrs. C. H. Dillehay of Hereford underwent an operation at Temple Thursday. She was accompanied to Temple by her sister, Mrs. L. F. Sheffy and by Mr. Dillehay, who is superintendent of the Hereford schools.

Museum Fund is Increasing With Small Donations

L. F. Sheffy states that the $25,000 building fund of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society museum is being increased daily by small donations being received from citizens of the Plains. This fund is to supplement the $25,000 appropriation made by the last session of the legislature.

July first has been set for the date on which the fund must be raised in order that construction may be started on the building. Mr. Sheffy states that the fund lacks about $3,000 of being completed, and hopes that this amount will be received during the month of June.

The Flag

The wings of the ships that sail the sky,
And the vessels that cruise the seas,
The tramp of feet where long armies come,
And the wind in the singing trees,
The odor that comes from soil, new-turned,
The hum of machinery's wheel,
A soldier's blood and a woman's faith,
Courage and dreams and steel—

Out of their warp the flag is made,
Out of their web there comes
The banner that floats when brave men march
To the tune of the martial drums.
May we have strength to keep it high,
God, let no dull threads mar
The flag of a thousand victories,
Keep it a guiding star!

Small River Bed Bill Upheld By Supreme Court

AUSTIN, June 1.—The Small bill vesting title to river beds in original owners of lands traversed by them was held constitutional and fully sustained by the Texas Supreme Court today.

The case, in which constitutionality of the Small bill was involved, was styled State of Texas vs. C. W. Bradford et al. There were approximately six hundred defendants, claimants under the bill to valuable oil bearing lands, parts of dry river beds, in West Texas. Aggregate value of some of the property involved had been placed as high as $50,000,000.

The bill, sponsored by Senator Clint C. Small of Amarillo and passed over the veto of Governor Dan Moody during his administration, validates title to land in the stream beds where the surveys cross streams that are not navigable but which are more than thirty feet wide.

The original statute classed the latter as navigable and forbade surveys to include them.

Much of the most valuable river bed holdings affected are in the north fork of the Red River for a distance of about seventy-five miles through Gray and Wheeler counties.

The suit was brought by the state to try title to the bed of the river, alleged to have been appropriated to the public school fund. As ground for the recovery the state alleged the river was a statutory navigable stream.

Caswell and Reed, two of the defendants, asserted they had an interest in the land under the oil and gas permit sections of the mineral act of 1917.

The decision held that river beds were the property of the state at large and not the school fund, having the effect of placing revenue from river beds to the credit of the state general revenue fund. It previously had been generally believed that revenue from development of the Sabine River, in the East Texas oil field, would accrue to the credit of the permanent school fund.

J. H. Walker, commissioner of the General Land Office, said after reviewing the court's decision in the Bradford case, it was plain the tribunal had held river beds were the property of the state at large and that under that holding, the general revenue fund would obtain returns from the Sabine River leasing.

J. H. Sharp, member of the Commission of Appeals, who wrote the opinion which was adopted by the Supreme Court proper, said it was the court's decision that river beds belonged to the state at large. He said that was the first time such construction had been placed on the statutes.

The state had contended the bed of the north fork had never been legally sold or conveyed and was not subject to be sold. The state also contended the Small bill had no application because the suit was pending at the time the bill was passed and that if the act should be held applicable it was unconstitutional.

The Supreme Court held that the caption and the language and terms of the act provided for the validation of titles and that it clearly was the intention to cure pre-existing defects in the title to river beds. The opinion denied the state's contention that the Small bill was not retrospective and that its purpose was to validate titles to lands whose "surveys have been heretofore made."

The bill had the effect of validating the titles even though a suit was pending for its recovery.

"Unquestionably the cloud cast against the titles to the upland by reason of the survey lines crossing the stream has been removed by the passage of the Small bill," the court stated.

After reviewing the history of land legislation since 1900, the court stated the "Legislature has repeatedly passed legislation with respect to beds and channels of navigable streams which is inconsistent with the contention that it was the intention of the Legislature to set apart and grant to the permanent school fund beds and channels of navigable streams."

E. Burroughs Moves To North Side of Square

E. Burroughs, jeweler, is moving his jewelry shop and display room from the First State bank building to the office in the Olympic theatre building on the north side of the square, recently vacated by the Guaranty Abstract and Title Co. Mr. Burroughs, who has been in business in Canyon since October, 1910, invites his friends and customers to visit him in his new location and states that he will carry on his business as formerly, offering quality merchandise and service in the lines he handles.

The Guaranty Abstract Company moved their office June 1st to the building on the east side of the square recently vacated by W. L. Browning.

"Laugh And Grow Healthy," Says Secretary

"If laughter is healthy for people, then the business of the doctors in this town will show a decided decrease after the minstrel on June 17." Fred Wortham, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, sponsors of the show, stated yesterday morning.

"The first meeting of the end men in the cast was held Thursday night and all declared the manuscript of the minstrel to be the best ever prepared for presentation in this section of the country.

"The roles assigned to the different individuals seem to fit like an old shoe and the interlocutor is going to be a scream and what an interlocutor! Dr. C. A. Pierle, interlocutor extraordinary is to handle the middle man position to a point of perfection."

Inquiries already received regarding the "Dollar Show," at "Repression Prices," have led the Chamber of Commerce committee in charge to predict a rapid sale of tickets and probably a sellout even before the doors open for the performance on the evening of June 17. The cause for which the show is to be staged, the museum fund, and the fact that it will be unusual in entertainment, indicates a record crowd at the College Auditorium where the minstrel will be represented.

A group of girls from the Physical Education Department of the College will present two novelty numbers. Jig dancing, quartets, vocal and musical numbers will be outstanding features.

J. A. McFarland Grows New Kind Winter Wheat

Considerable interest was shown in a sample of a new variety of wheat being grown in this county for the first time this year and brought to Canyon by J. A. McFarland, Friday morning. The new variety of grain is known as the Cat-Tail wheat and is a beardless variety. Mr. McFarland, who lives in the Sunny Hill community, has 35 acres of this kind of wheat.

The heads on the wheat stalk are from 5 to 8 inches in length, containing 18 to 25 meshes with three to five grains in each mesh. It has been estimated by a number of people, that Mr. McFarland will make from 20 to 25 bushels per acre on this wheat, while the ordinary winter wheat growing nearby will produce perhaps 10 to 12 bushels per acre.

The Cat-Tail wheat is a soft winter wheat. It is planted at the same time of the season as the ordinary hard winter wheat. It was brought to this section of the state by a farmer from Denton County. Mr. McFarland stated that a number of farmers in the vicinity of Happy purchased seed of this variety last fall.

Texas Only State With Prospects of Wheat Crop for '32

The government estimate places the 1932 wheat yield at 440,800,000 bushels as compared with a five year average of 548,600,000 bushels.

THIS SCHOOL WILL BE CONDUCTED BY MRS. LEONA RUSK IHRIG

| Tuesday | Wednesday | Thursday | Friday |
|---|---|---|---|
| JUNE 7 | JUNE 8 | JUNE 9 | JUNE 10 |

2 to 4 P. M.

A FREE LETTER day in cooking is just around the corner. IT'S a day which will loom large in your memory for weeks afterward. For, it marks the opening of this newspaper's annual Free Cooking School.

We have planned these programs for months—getting seats ready, making arrangements to get together the best foodstuffs and home appliances, ironing out all the detail problems which crop up in arranging a truly great and truly memorable home exposition such as the Canyon News Cooking School is to be.

A home economist who has talked before thousands of housewives, throughout the country, will be in direct charge of all programs. She is noted for her practical knowledge of the art of cookery, the frills and furbelows as waee as everyday roast beef and potatoes. The cooking school won't have a bit of formality in it—you can ask all the questions you want, and the home economist has a world of experience with which to answer them. You'll see all your friends and neighbors there, and we want you to come, too. We invite you to make this YOUR cooking school—and don't miss a single fascinating minute of it.

REMEMBER—the doors open an hour before the Cooking School gets under way—come early and bring pencil and paper.

THE CANYON NEWS COOKING SCHOOL SHOWS YOU THE WAY TO REAL KITCHEN HAPPINESS—AND IT'S ALL FREE!

The Canyon News wouldn't dare suggest you grab your husband by the ear and tell him for whom he should vote . . .

BUT WE DO SAY THIS

consider these candidates for office and here's why:

In bringing to Canyon Mrs. Leona Rusk Irig, nationally known Culinary Expert, for The News Free Cooking School, the newspaper underwrote all expenses—a considerable sum—in the belief that the Cooking School would be worth many times its cost. Undoubtedly it is, but some one has to foot the bills.

These Candidates for elective office believe the Cooking School is a wonderful help to the people of Canyon and Randall County. They are defraying a part of the expenses of the School and urge their friends and the public in general to attend every session. They are glad of the opportunity to help make possible this community event.

THESE CANDIDATES ARE HELPING TO MAKE YOUR COOKING SCHOOL POSSIBLE

It is with pleasure that I assist in bringing this fine school to Canyon. I trust that it will benefit the housewives of Canyon greatly.

Wayside Items

Despite the threatening weather a large crowd gathered at Wayside Monday to observe Memorial exercises. Numbers were kept away for fear of rain. Quite a large number of men worked in the cemetery during the morning, while the ladies prepared the flowers for decoration of the graves. More than two hundred and fifty were placed on the graves. A large number of little children participated, with a number of ladies to assist. Memorial program was good, consisting of music, readings, and much enjoyed by the audience. His dinner partner one evening was a young woman whose racing knowledge had been limited to to a day or two at the course on some fashionable occasion. She listened attentively most of the evening to a recounting of the glories and performances of Man o' War's offspring. There was a lull and some one across the table asked her: "What do you think of disarmament?"

Prince of Wales Dances With Our Amelia in London

LONDON, June 3.—Mrs. Amelia Earhart Putnam, the first woman to fly the Atlantic, proved her prowess on a ballroom dance floor last night. She was one of the most popular guests at a hospital charity ball.

Mrs. Putnam agreed today that she "had a great time."

Shortly after her arrival she was escorted to the table of the Prince of Wales and, after talking pleasantly for a few moments, the couple swung away on the dance floor.

So pleased with the flier's dancing was the prince that he came back for more and twice again the heir to the British throne asked Mrs. Putnam for dances.

taxes and expenditures of Texas. If a sufficient number of old members are returned to the legislature in January, members who have a definite knowledge of the workings of the state government and who understand where economics may be practiced, there will result a consolidation of departments, elimination of several, and a great reduction in state expenditures without in the least impairing the usefulness of any department of the state. The past legislature started a fine program of retrenchment, but the real work must be accomplished in the coming session.

"Among the economies which were passed in the last session were the amendments to the state constitution which will consolidate the offices of tax assessor and tax collector; and the amendment to exempt homesteads to the value of $3,000 from state taxes. These two amendments will be voted upon in November. Four committees are at work with a view of lowering taxes; first, the fees committee—the results of its labors so far are that six sheriffs have been sentenced to the penitentiary for defrauding the state, two clerks have committed suicide rather than face prosecution, and the state has been saved at least $75,000 per month in fees; second, the economy and efficiency committee, which is making an intelligent survey of the state's departments through a firm of experts who made a survey of the state of New York and other states, and are saving these states many millions of dollars through consolidation of departments; third, the committee to consolidate the court districts with a view of abolishing about twenty district courts; fourth, a tax survey committee, seeking to make more effective and equitable the tax system of Texas. As a result of the Budget Law passed by the last session, expenditures of local governments are being greatly reduced in the cities, school districts and counties of Texas.

Saved State Money

"Personally, I am glad to report the economies for which I am directly responsible during the 42nd session of the legislature. I was appointed chairman of the Committee on Contingent Expenses by Speaker Fred H. Minor, who sought a business man of experience and someone who knew how to practice economy for himself. As chairman of this committee, it was my duty to pass upon every item of expense of the House, amounting to practically $100,000. I am pleased to report that I inaugurated economies which had never before been practiced with a result that the incidental expenses of the House were cut to nearly half the expenditures of either the 40th or 41st legislatures. I was highly complimented by the membership for the efficiency of handling the business of the House and for effecting the great savings to the taxpayers. Should I be returned to the legislature next session, I am confident that I will be able to increase the savings still more, as I have in mind a complete re-organization of this department which will decrease the staff of clerks, as well as reduce the expenditures for incidentals.

CLYDE W. WARWICK
of Randall County for Re-election as State Representative, 123rd District.

"I served as a member of the Appropriations Committee in the last session. It is only on this committee that a member gets a real insight into the state's business. With the knowledge that I gained while studying the state government for six months last year, I believe that I am in a position to make intelligent recommendations and fight for reductions in appropriations in the coming session which will mean much to the taxpayers of the state. It is very easy to create jobs and new departments, but impossible to abolish or consolidate them unless your legislator is armed with facts as to the importance of these positions.

Committee Appointments

"During the past two sessions I have been very fortunate in receiving committee appointments which gave me an opportunity to study the needs of Texas. In addition to being chairman of the Contingent Expense committee and member of the Appropriations committee, I have served on the following committees: Penitentiary; Banks and Banking; Municipal and Private Corporations; Oil, Gas and Mining; Public Printing. Working on these committees, I have met many of the real leaders of Texas who are giving thought to the present day complex and perplexing problems, and who are anxious to help Texas in every way, to drive safely through the present storm of adversity. Business men are needed today in legislative halls more than they ever were before.

"Many people have gained the impression that the office of Representative is a money making proposition. Far from that. Your legislator hardly breaks even on his pay if he is honest and working for the good of the state. Honesty and responsibility are more than ever needed in government during these trying times. If I am returned to the legislature, I propose that the legislators take a reduction in salary, the same as everyone else is doing. Furthermore, I believe that the membership of the House should be reduced from 150 to not more than 93, three from each Senatorial district. This would save the state not less than $100,000 for every regular session of the legislature and would improve the efficiency of the House. During the past two sessions of the legislature it has been my pleasure to handle in the House all of the bills which have affected this district. Practially every measure has become law.

Interested in Education

"I am interested very greatly in the cause of education in Texas. While I live in a college town, and have great personal interest in the West Texas State Teachers College, yet I know full well that no institution may be favored at the expense of any other. The system in Texas as a whole, from the common schools in the country to the great University of Texas, must stand together as a whole, and upon the merits of the services being rendered to the children of the state. The creation of the State Board of Education two years ago was a step toward improvement in the entire system as a whole. Weaknesses in the system will be more easily detected and strengthened, and duplication and rivalry eliminated.

"The responsibility for the defeat of re-districting in Texas rests upon the shoulders of a few senators, and not upon the entire membership of the legislature. The House passed re-districting bills which were acceptable to West Texas, and were valiantly fought for by West Texas senators.

Need of Industries

"The State of Texas is in a deplorable financial condition, due to the depression of business in every line, and to the depreciation in farm and stock values. I am opposed to laying additional tax burdens on the people of the state, or singling out industries for the sake of special levies of taxation. Texas needs industries at this time and they should not be discouraged from locating in the state. With the vast field of natural gas in the Panhandle, efforts should be made to induce industries to locate here, but this cannot be done if the state imposes undue penalties upon them.

"The people of Texas have once turned down a constitutional amendment to abolish the fee system. However, if it is submitted again by the next session of the legislature, I feel sure that it will be adopted, in view of the interest being taken in the matter of taxation by the taxpayers of the state. I most heartily approve the making of an intelligent study of tax expenditures, both local and state wide, and regret that the people were too busy during boom times to take the same interest that they are now taking.

Personal Record

"I came to the Panhandle 22 years ago this summer. What little worldly goods I possess is due to hard work and saving habits. While I have engaged primarily in the newspaper business, other interests in farming, merchandising and banking have given me a clear understanding in the problems which today confront our people. I have been schooled in the college of hard knocks and long hours of labor. I owe a debt of gratitude to the people of this district for their kindnesses in the past, and if I can be of service to them as their State Representative, I shall feel amply repaid for the time and expense incurred.

"I am offering my record as your Representative in the past two sessions as an index as to what you may expect should I be returned to Austin. I believe that there is a vast amount of important work ahead for the legislature next January, and if I am elected your Representative again I shall do my best to represent the people of this district, intelligently, honestly and faithfully."

Summer School

who will study this summer.

Miss Ruth Cross will resume her work as head of the department of physical education for women, taking the work which has been directed during the year by Mrs. Ethel Gray Shaw. Miss Cross has been doing special work in Columbia University during the year just closed.

Mrs. T. H. McDonald will not teach this summer, her work in the Demonstration high school not being offered during this session.

Professor C. A. Murray will be back at his place in the Mathematics department this summer. He and Mrs. Murray have spent the past nine months in Austin where Mr. Murray has been studying in the University of Texas.

Recreation Program

At the close of the regular session, President Hill appointed a committee to work out a recreation program for the summer. The success of the Palo Duro Outing Club, which was organized last summer has shown that such a program will be welcomed. The committee to work out the plans for this summer is headed by Professor S. H. Condron and it expects to have some form of recreation available for every person in college.

Training School

The first seven grades of the Training School, under the direction of Professor F. E. Savage and his corps of teachers, will be open to children without the payment of any tuition. It is expected that all grades from the kindergarten up will be filled to capacity. Miss Ruth Lowes, Mrs. Laura Saunders, Miss Novella Goodman, Miss Jean Moore and Mr. A. K. Goodman will be critic teachers.

Fees for boys and girls who are eligible for work in the high school will be lower this year than heretofore. President Hill has explained that this will enable pupils whose work is irregular, or who have worked in unaffiliated high schools to secure the help they need to enable them to finish their high school work without a great expense.

With prices lower than in years, there is every reason to believe that students who come to the West Texas State Teachers College this summer will be better served than ever before.

Ely Proposes

and Lubbock districts now than in any other section of the state, but the projects I have outlined are to be put down for immediate work provided we have the co-operation of the counties involved."

In discussing the proposal that annual obligations of $7,000,000 on county road bonds be assumed by the state and paid out of the gasoline tax, Judge Ely said it was generally assumed that such a plan will be approved by the next Legislature. He warned, however, against cutting too deep in the road funds.

Might Block Plans

"If only $6,000,000 to $7,000,000," he said, "is taken from the road funds, we will not be prevented from carrying on our construction program to a reasonable degree. Work would be curtailed, of course, but we could keep the main projects going. If, however, any more than that sum is diverted from our department our plans as to new construction would be blocked and needed roads in the Panhandle might be held in abeyance indefinitely."

Judge Ely said the plan for calling a special session of the Legislature to enact a law diverting the gasoline tax money to the use of county bonds this year should be discouraged. "Our commitments," he said, "for the year have been made. If our funds are disturbed now many projects scheduled for early completion will be seriously disrupted."

Clint C. Small Will Announce for Re-Election

Senator Clint C. Small authorized the News yesterday to state that he will formally announce his candidacy for re-election to the State Senate Monday. He has served one four-year term in the senate and is recognized as the outstanding leader in the senate.

Senator Small has withheld his announcement until this time owing to the fact that friends have insisted that he announce for governor.

THE NEW MOBIL OIL

Developed and manufactured as the first automotive lubricant to meet every requirement of modern-day motor vehicles, a new motor oil—New Mobiloil—is announced by the Magnolia Petroleum Company, according to J. S. Hand, Magnolia Agent.

For the first time, New Mobiloil goes on sale today at more than 12,000 Magnolia and Mobiloil stations and dealers throughout the Southwest.

Representing the combined achievement of the makers of Mobiloil the world's first refiners of automotive lubricants, and of Magnolia, the first in the Southwest, the New Mobiloil is being introduced with the knowledge that it is superior to the former mobiloil, largest selling motor oil in the world, and to Socony Motor oil, most popular premium motor oil in the Southwest."

J. S. Hand said in announcing the new lubricant, "New Mobiloil has proved its ability to meet the exacting requirements of modern high speed, high compression motors by months of testing in the laboratories of Socony-Vacuum Companies and under every conceivable climatic and highway condition in the Southwest by the Magnolia fleet of test cars."

Economy in the use of New Mobiloil is not confined to the price alone. It is in the extra oil mileage that it provides, and the protection against costly repair bills which its use assures, that the New Mobiloil proves its real economy.

For sale at all Magnolia stations and dealers. Pinky Hand, agent.

FOR $1.30

after 8:30 p. m.

(Station-to-station rate)

FEW people like to write letters. Before you realize it, weeks and months have slipped by . . . friends (and families, too) have drifted apart. And it really isn't necessary, now-a-days, when long distance telephoning is so easy, so pleasant, and so inexpensive.

Suppose tonight you'd lift your receiver and ask "long distance" to connect you with the telephone of some out-of-town friend or relative whose voice you'd like to hear. Can't you imagine their thrill of surprise . . . the pleasure you'd both get from an actual conversation. (Chances are they'd forget all about that letter you've owed so long.)

Rates are low . . . especially if you call "station-to-station" after 8:30 p. m. Here are some examples:

| From | To | For |
|---|---|---|
| Canyon | Austin | $1.05 |
| Canyon | Fort Worth | 85c |
| Canyon | Lubbock | 40c |
| Canyon | Oklahoma City | 70c |

(Station-to-station rate after 8:30 p. m.)

"Miss Long Distance" will be glad to give you the rate to any other point, whether you wish to place a call or not. Ask for the night "station-to-station" rate. Night rates apply from 8:30 p. m. to 4:30 a. m.
